DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Urban et al. (Pub. No.: US 2004/0208302 A1).

Regarding claim 1, Urban et al. (“Urban”) teaches a method for enhanced telephone caller identification wherein the caller supplies information related to the call, the method comprising the steps of:

receiving calling information to initiate a telephone call;

determining whether caller has supplied information related to the call in addition to telephone number;

storing the information when there is determination that the caller has supplied additional information about the telephone call;

transmitting the calling information to the destination of the telephone entered by the caller; displaying the information supplied by the caller at the destination of location of the call (see paragraphs [0042]-[0044] and [0046]).
and

Regarding claim 2-10, note paragraphs [0043] and [0048].

Regarding claim 11, Urban teaches a computer program product in a computer readable medium for enhanced telephone caller identification wherein the caller supplies information related to the call, the program comprising:

instructions for receiving calling information to initiate a telephone call;

instructions for determining whether caller has supplied information related to the call in addition to telephone number;

instructions for storing the information when there is determination that the caller has supplied additional information about the telephone call;

instructions for transmitting the calling information to the destination of the telephone entered by the caller; and instructions for displaying the information supplied by the caller at the destination location of the call (see paragraphs [0042]-[0044] and [0046]).

Regarding claim 12-20, note paragraphs [0043] and [0048].
